Fighting alone 10-night,
With not even a stander-by
To cheer me on in the fight
Or to hear me when I cry.
Only the Lord can see
The struggle within, dark and drear,
Though quiet the outside be.

Lord. I would fain be still.

And quiet behind my shield:
But make me to know Thy will,
For fear I should even yield.

Even as now my hands,
So doth my folded will.

Lie waiting Thy commands.

Without one anxious thrill.

But as with sudden pain
My hands unfold and class,
So doth my will stand up again
And take its old firm grass,
Nothing but perfect trust
And lova of Thy perfect will
Can raise me out of the dust
And bid my fears be still.

Oh. Lord, Thou hidest Thy face And the battle clouds peavall, Oh, grant me Thy sweet grace. That I may not utterly fall. Fushing alone to-night With what a beating heart. Lord Jegua, in the flar, Oh, stand not Thou apart!
